warrior and a christian---happily no lives were loſt, but the accumulated REWARDS of TREASON and MURDER were quick depoſited in the bowels of the ocean.

Our informant further adds, that the town and country in the vicinity of St. Johns, are almoſt deſerted by the new inhabitants, the refugees, near 3000 of whom having lately packed off; ſome from a diſtaſte to government and country, and ſome through neceſſity. The high-handed, arbitrary meaſures of their rulers, it ſeems, are intolerable; and their wilderneſs lands do not afford a ſufficiency of bread to prevent the hungry from ſtarving.

We learn, that in conſequence of the circulation, in this city and environs, of great quantities of counterfeit coppers, ſent from Europe, the chamber of commerce of this city have reſolved, to cauſe the act, in that caſe made and provided, to be carried into effect.

Extract of a letter from Wilmington, (Delaware) dated Jan. 4.

"By a private letter from Baltimore we learn, that on the 23d ult. a dreadful fire broke out there, which conſumed 3 two-ſtory houſes, beſides ſeveral ſmall buildings. Three thouſand dollars were melted in one of the houſes. This accident happened by hot embers being thrown into a caſk in the cellar, which took fire, and communicated the flames to the floor. Three or four perſons narrowly eſcaped with their lives, having laid in their beds until they were almoſt ſuffocated; they were dragged from the impending danger by the timely aid of ſome friendly hand.

It muſt be pleaſing to the friends of America, to be informed, that in conſequence of the prohibition of books being imported into the ſtate of Pennſylvania, an impreſſion of 25,000 of the New Teſtament, will ſhortly be ſtruck off at Philadelphia, hitherto furniſhed by other countries.---What quantities of caſh might be ſaved to THIS STATE, was a like prohibitory act in force here!

A great clamour is now raiſed in New-Jerſey, about an impreſſion of paper money. Their papers are filled, both for & againſt, and petitions are Induſtriouſly circulated by each party to carry their point; however, a majority appears to be for it, which not only entitles them to the NOTICE of the Legiſlature, but an abſolute CLAIM to a compliance with their requiſition.

A new and promiſing manufactory has lately been eſtabliſhed by Meſſrs. Gillet de la Vallee and Co. at Packer's Falls, New-Hampſhire, under the patronage of the Hon. Major-General Sullivan, at whoſe houſe, we are informed, the Manufacturers now reſide. The benefits to be derived to the United States from the encouragement of domeſtic manufactures, are as numerous and important as they are obvious---no one, therefore, in whoſe breaſt one ſpark of patriotiſm is alive, will withhold encouragement from ſuch laudable efforts for benefiting our country.

Concluding ſentence of a ſpeech in Frankland Aſſembly.

"It was a good reſolution of an ancient ruler, that he would rather be a door-keeper to the houſe of God, than dwell in a place, enjoying ſinful power.---At this time, and in this country, who is it that has a ſoul attuned to right notions of glory and fame, that would not prefer the plaudits of freemen, of thouſands unborn, to the ſhackled manacles of an ariſtocratical patronage?"

Poughkeepſie, Jan. 19.

With pleaſure we inform the public, that (to prevent the advantages taken by many) the merchants, and moſt of the Inhabitants of this place, have at length fallen into the method of receiving, and paying away all Coppers, at the rate of FOURTEEN to a ſhilling.

WHEREAS We the ſubſcribers, ſtand indebted unto Benjamin Leſter, heretofore of the Townſhip of Hemſtead on Long-Iſland, in this State of N. York, in and by two ſeveral Bonds or Obligations, bearing date the 31ſt day of March, in the year 1774; the firſt conditioned for the payment of one hundred and eighty three pounds ten ſhillings, New-York money; the other conditioned for the payment of eighty pounds, like money: the firſt payable on the firſt day of May, 1775, the other on the firſt day of May, 1776—on which bonds or obligations a conſiderable ſum for debt and intereſt remains due. And whereas we did on the 31ſt day of March, 1774, give and execute a deed or conveyance to the ſaid Benjamin Leſter, of a certain farm or tract of land, being in Charlotte precinct, in Dutcheſs county, and State of New-York, bounded as follows: north by Charles Crook and John Crook, eaſt by Jacob Lawrance, jun. and Cort Van-Voorhis, ſouth by Nathaniel Thorne, Daniel Carpenter and Benjamin Kinyon, weſt by Abraham Bakee, formerly belonging to Mordecai Leſter and Joſeph Mott, in company, undivided: Which deed was given for the ſecurity of the ſaid two hundred and ſixty-three pounds ten ſhillings, contained in the before recited bonds or obligations. And whereas the ſaid Benjamin Leſter, did on the day aforeſaid, give and execute a mortgage deed back to us, of the ſaid deſcribed premiſes; which was to render void the deed or conveyance given by us to him the ſaid Benjamin Leſter, on payment of the aforeſaid ſum of two hundred and ſixty-three pounds ten ſhillings, contained in the before recited bonds or obligations: Agreeable therefore, to the act of the Legiſlature of the State of New-York, entitled, "An act relative to debts due to perſons within the enemy's lines," paſſed the 12th day of July, 1782, and "an act to explain and amend the act, entitled, an act relative to debts due to perſons within the enemy's lines," paſſed the 24th day of November, 1784, you the ſaid Benjamin Leſter, are hereby cited to appear before the Judges and Juſtices of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, which is to be held at Poughkeepſie, in and for the county of Dutcheſs, in the ſtate of New-York, on the 2d Tueſday in October next, to have a ſettlement of the bonds and mortgages aforeſaid, and every other debt or demand whatſoever, and that payment may be made agreeable to the mode preſcribed by the acts aforeſaid; otherwiſe he will be barred and precluded from the recovery of the monies due on the ſaid bonds, or deed, mortgage or conveyance, or other demand, or any part thereof; of which the ſaid Benjamin Leſter is deſired to take notice, from

Cornelius Lawrance,
Abraham Wood.

Dated Poughkeepſie, in Dutcheſs county, State of New-York, 16th January, 1786. 24—32
